

Virginia Board of Long-Term Care Administrators

Continuing Competency Hours for Dually-Licensed Administrators

Persons who are dually licensed as nursing home administrators and assisted living facility administrators are allowed to count the continuing competency hours for both professions, requiring that only 20 hours be accrued to meet the requirements for renewal.