Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) related to temporary licensure and continuity of care

UPDATED JULY 19, 2021

- 1. Will the temporary licenses issued under Executive Order 57 be extended or can I renew the temporary license? No. Executive Order 57 specifically states that the temporary license expired on September 8, 2020.
- 2. If I received a temporary license from the Board and it has expired, can I still provide my client with services after September 8, 2020? No. Executive Order 57 which allowed continuity of care for the duration of Executive Order 51 (State of Emergency) expired on June 30, 2021. The exception to this requirement is to hold a current PSYPACT Authority to Practice Interjurisdictional Telepsychology (APIT) or Interjurisdictional Practice Certificate (IPC).
- 3. If I received a temporary license and established a new client relationship with a client in Virginia during the existence of Executive Order 57 (April 17, 2020 – September 8, 2020), can I provide continuity of care after September 8, 2020? No. You must hold a current Virginia license in order to provide clinical services to a client located in Virginia. The exception to this requirement is to hold a current PSYPACT Authority to Practice Interjurisdictional Telepsychology (APIT) or Interjurisdictional Practice Certificate (IPC). (See question #7 for information on how to apply for permanent licensure in Virginia.)
- 4. If I did not receive a temporary license but have a current client that has moved, visiting, or will be temporarily located in Virginia, can I provide continuity of care via telehealth? No. Executive Order 57 which allowed continuity of care for the duration of Executive Order 51 (State of Emergency) expired on June 30, 2021. You must hold a current Virginia license in order to provide clinical services to clients located in Virginia.
